The Disability Discrimination Act

The Disability Discrimination Act of 1995 made it unlawful for employers to discriminate against their employees who are disabled, and places a duty on the employer to make reasonable adjustments to enable the employee to undertake the work. The definition in the Act is "People with disabilities are individuals who have, or have had, a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long term effect on his or her ability to carry out normal day to day activities". If you do consider yourself to be disabled under the definition in the Act, please indicate this, even if you do not currently need any adjustments to undertake your job.

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act allows for a person who has been convicted of a criminal offence involving a sentence of not more than 2½ years imprisonment and who has since lived trouble free for a specified period of time (related to the severity of the offence) to be treated as if the offence, conviction or sentence had never occurred. This is known as a spent conviction.

The job for which you are applying is one of those to which the provisions of the above Act in relation to spent convictions, do not apply. You must therefore disclose whether you have any previous convictions, whether or not they are spent.

Should you identify that you have a criminal conviction, this will be discussed in confidence at interview. However you should note that only convictions that are relevant to the job in question will be taken into account.

Do you have any criminal convictions whether spent or unspent?    Yes    No

If yes please give further information:

If you do not disclose any conviction you have it could lead to your application being rejected, or, if you are appointed, may lead later to your dismissal. If between the completion of this application form and taking up a job within Beech Lodge School you are convicted of a criminal offence you must inform the Proprietorial Board of this.

People who have convictions will be treated fairly and given every opportunity to establish their suitability for the job. All applicants will be considered on merit and ability.

Any information that you give will be kept in strict confidence and will be used only in respect of your application for the job.

Disclosure and Barring Service

Successful applicants will be asked to apply for a Disclosure & Barring Service Check (Disclosure) from the Disclosure & Barring Service.
