

We warmly invite you to a series of twilight:

Childhood Trauma Workshops

Beech Lodge School, Maidenhead

These workshops will provide education professionals with an understanding of how childhood trauma and Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs) impact social & emotional development leading to difficulties in the classroom. We will explore the theories behind ACEs and Developmental and Relational Trauma and offer strategies, interventions and action plans to support children using approaches implemented at Beech Lodge School.

We are holding 4 workshops across the coming academic year:

Workshop 1	An Introduction to ACEs and Developmental Trauma	Weds 14 th Nov 2018
Workshop 2	Adverse Childhood Experiences; Impact, Resilience and Response	Weds 23 rd Jan 2019
Workshop 3	Working with Traumatised Children – Practical Strategies	Weds 27 th Mar 2019
Workshop 4	Focusing on Social and Emotional Well-being in the Classroom	Weds 1 st May 2019

All workshops are £50 (inc VAT) per delegate and will run as after school twilight sessions (4pm - 6:30pm)

Location:
